

You have been entrusted with the responsibility to protect the public interests, not corporate interests. Some may argue that consolidation will "improve the product," but the risks far out weigh boasted benefits. I urge you to be guided by the fundamental principles that have made this nation strong such as: to foster diversity not monopoly. More than ever before, information outlets are the life blood of our country. Relaxing regulations is abandoning your responsibility. Millions are watching whose interests you serve.